Orff-Schuylerwerk. By Athan Karras. CLICK IMAGE TO ENLARGE. When we consider Greek dance, we wonder, and try to discover, what it was in ancient times, both in its relationship to society and its basic function. Perhaps our best clues come from ancient sculptures and paintings and from contemporary Greek folk dance.

This CD is a great sampling of authentic Greek folk songs from all regions of Greece. I highly recommend it. I used to dance with a group of international folk dancers back in the late 1960's to music on this album. I couldn't believe how familiar these songs & dance music was to me when I first played this CD.

The Greek folk music, in Greek Demotiko or Paradosiako, refers to the traditional Greek popular songs and music of mainland Greece and islands dated to the Byzantine times. It was the sole popular musical genre of the Greek people until the spread of rebetiko and laiko in the early 20th century, spread by the Greek refugees from Asia Minor. This kind of music evolved from the ancient and the ...
