The best time to travel to Italy in terms of weather is during spring (April to June) or autumn (September to October). Temperatures are warm and you avoid the unpleasant heat of the summer months, an experience only worsened by busy crowds jostling for a view of this or that ancient ruin, painting, fresco, etc.

Italy is the world's most celebrated tourist destination. Its magnificent cities – Rome, Florence, Venice and Naples – are full of iconic sights, while its scenery, from the snow-clad Dolomites to the glorious beaches of Sardinia, is simply breathtaking and its cuisine beyond compare. Italy has 20 regions which are then divided into 110 provinces. Our map of Italy groups some of these regions together into areas that a traveller might want to visit.
