Figurative Language Poem 2: I Sing the Battle by Harry Kemp – There is often a naive and jubilant rush to battle before wars begin, and a sobering reality check after the horrors are unleashed. Kemp expresses this dynamic exquisitely using an interesting rhetorical technique. This poem uses personification, simile, metaphor, alliteration, and dialogue.

Seeing an unseen poem and having to analyse it in an exam can be very scary, and it was always my least favourite part of the exam. I am going to teach you a way to approach the question that will hopefully calm your nerves. So let's imagine you're sitting in the exam...when you reach the unseen poem question I would advise you to read the poem through at least 3 times as calmly as you can, and at this point try not to even think about it in relation to the question.
